ENDING FAMILY HOMELESSNESS FOR 30 YEARS

What's Happening at ACS?

Learning Black History

Our Early Childhood Education Program spent this month learning about black history!

Ms. Shareka Brownlee

Ms. Shareka Brownlee was searching for people she could trust. After experiencing medical issues, Ms. Brownlee wanted to go back to work, but she needed childcare for her son. Finding ACS allowed Ms. Brownlee to breathe a sigh of relief...

Volunteer Highlight

Our friends from the PropelU chapter of Morehouse and Spelman Colleges came by to reorganize our donation closet! Keeping our donation closet organized ensures we can track all the resources we have for families. Additionally, when the closet is organized, teachers can easily access needed items for parents and students. Thank you, PropelU, for doing this work to make sure that our families receive everything they need!
